

Name: _____

From the documentary on feral children, please answer the following:

1. What is a feral child?

2. How do feral children contribute to the nature/nurture debate?

3. Dr. Etard claimed that to be human you need 2 things. These are:

4. The documentary explains that Madame Guerain instinctively understood the importance of _____ to being human.

5. After learning about Victor, do you think he understood the world of humans or do you think he was more like an animal? Why?

6. What were the unforeseen consequences of primatologist Winthrop Kellogg's experiment?

7. What did Harlow's experiment with the rhesus monkeys show about the importance of touch?

8. What is the theory of children learning at critical periods?

9. What was the main problem with Genie's language development?
10. What happens to the brains of isolated or feral children that interferes with their development?
11. What did Etick do that made him able to survive with the dogs? What did the dogs provide for Etick?
11. What is the advantage Etick has over the other feral children?
12. What is the worst problem Etick will have in the future?
13. In the video, one of the experts claims that part of being human means being brought up by human— after watching the video--do you agree? explain